ST. PETER'S KEYS

KEEP SHINING!!!

CLASSROOM CORNER

Hello, St. Peter's School family!

Welcome to February! Did any of you make New Year's resolutions this year? If so, how are you doing on them? I'm challenging our congregation to read all the way through God's Word this year, using the One Year Chronological Bible. Come along for the ride! We have copies of the reading plan available on the table in the church lobby and in the school office. Some are reading or listening to it on Bible.com or the YouVersion app. I post a reflection on the previous week's readings each Wednesday on our church's YouTube and Facebook pages. Journeying through the entire Bible in a year is a big challenge (about three chapters a day), but I've always found it to be a great blessing. Ask God to speak to you as you read, and He will!

Yesterday, Bryce Blake, one of our second graders, was baptized during worship at St. Peter's. When I asked him why he wanted to be baptized, Bryce said, "I want to be a believer!" Two Sundays ago, we had the baptism of the two-month old of a former St. Peter's student. Last summer, we baptized a mom and her two daughters who had been invited to our church by their neighbors. Whenever someone is baptized, it's a welcome home party! Baptism means daily turning back to God and rising to new life.

May the Holy Spirit create new life in you this year, and send you to share your hope with others!

Pastor Kurt
